Advanced Foil Summer Camp PREPARATION FOR COMPETITION August 18th – 22, 2010

Objective

This camp's objective is to prepare advanced fencers for the coming season by providing a superior fencing environment with an emphasis on competitive bouts and technical and tactical skills. Athletes will be grouped by four, and will receive both group and individual instruction.

Sessions contain:

- bouts by themes (tactical work)
- individual lessons
- match (individuel and by team)
- physical preparation (individualized training program)

Program

4 days of training and one half-day recovery (surf, kayak-surf trip)

There will be two camp sessions each day and one individual lesson per student by each coach who teach different fencing styles: french, german, american.

Number of participants

The number of campers is limited to 20 for 4 coaches!
