Incentives & Program

Individual Veterans` World Championships

Krems

September 3 – 5, 2004

Krems, a town with a unique flair during every season of the year.

A historical centre with beautifully restored houses from the Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque periods is awaiting you. This Danube Town has been in existence for over a millennium and this long history is omnipresent. The lively and modern cafes, restaurants, shops and boutiques create an interesting counterpoint to this history. Krems is a vibrant town. By the way Krems is the first town in Austria to be declared a "Città del Vino" and accepted into the famous guild of Europe's heritages

Program 1

GUIDED TOUR THROUGH KREMS

For a group of 20 persons: € 2, 80 for a tour of 1.5 hours
For a smaller group: € 56, 00 / group

Program 3

VIENNA SIGHTSEEING TOUR

Possible only on friday. You will visit the most famous things in Vienna like Schloss Schoenbrunn, Hofburg, Naschmarkt, having a lunch in the Prater and after 2 hours for free disposal you will end this tour with a visit at a typical "Heurigen".

Price/person incl. the lunch € 23,00/person

Program 4

HEURIGEN IN KREMS/WACHAU

Typical for the Eastern part of Austria (where the most wine is growing) are the so called Heurigen. In former times they have been small, very simple equipped locations where you could drink the “new” wine of the current year. This wine is called in Austria “Heuriger” and so the places are called like this wine. In the new time these Heurigen are offering different old and new wines and a local kitchen suiting to the wine.

The price/person for a special plate and three different wines: € 11.50
a typical buffet offering the regional kitchen with three different wines: € 22,00

Program 5

Visit of the KLOSTER UND

This former capuchin cloister, desecrated in 1796, is today the "Weinkolleg" - the so called 'House of Lower Austrian Wines'. It offers an attractive atmosphere for activities around wine. One can sample and buy more than 100 exclusive wines from Lower Austria in the historic cellars. A guided tour as well as wine-seminars is bookable.

Price/person: € 10,00 for 6 wines, bread and mineral water

Program 6

SWIMMING WINE CELLAR – THE DIFFERENT WAY TO MEET WINE ON THE DANUBE RIVER

Start at 2.00 or 3.00 p.m. with a Wachau ship from Foerthof, going up the Danube to Spitz and back, tasting the wines of those vineyards we will pass. You will taste some great wines known all over the world like Jamek, Hirtzenberger, Knoll, ...

Price/person: € 13, 00 for 4 excellent well known wines
Price/person: € 12, 20 for the ship tour Krems-Spitz-Krems

Program 7

WEINSTADTmuseum

The WEINSTADTmuseum was opened in 1996 in the former Dominican Monastery in the old town of Krems. It is here, where you find out more about the wine growers of Krems, the influence of the Danube and the importance of wine-growing for the development of this town.

In the historical halls of the Dominican Monastery you get the chance to admire precious ancient objects while enjoying the advantages of today's high technology.

Price/person: € 3,60 (for group of 15 persons +: € 2.50)

Program 8

STIFT GOETTWEIG is one of cultural heritages of our country

Benedictine Abbey Goettweig is situated in 449m above sea level, south of the town Krems at the Danube.

Benedictine Abbey Goettweig (founded in 1083) is also called the "Montecassino of Austria"!

The baroque monastery facility was rebuilt by the imperial court architect Johann Lukas von Hildebrandt after a fire had nearly completely destroyed the monastery in 1718. The show-rooms in the museum, the monumental emperor stairs crowned by the impressive ceiling fresco created in 1739 by Paul Troeger (1698-1762).

Price per person for a tour through the abbey (depending which you choose – the large one or the shorter one) is between € 2.50 and € 6.50
